Dear Parents/Carers,

An idea from Rossmere Primary School in Hartlepool has been adopted by our trust schools of Hartburn, Wolviston and Village. The idea is that children can arrive at 10:30 on Monday morning (12th July), if they wish, and they will not be marked as late for school. This would allow children to have a sleep in after a late night watching the England football team in action at Wembley. School will still be open at normal times on Monday, including Breakfast Club, so that working parents can get to work.

It is 55 years since England reached a final so this is a unique opportunity to watch a bit of history and let the children stay up late. We talk a lot at school about proud local community and we also have a great pride in being English. We teach children about British values through our curriculum and we really hope the country will come together and the lads will bring the trophy home. I am hoping we can all have a rendition of 'Sweet Caroline' on Monday!

If you have any questions please feel free to ask.
