

Mr Dixon - Parent Support

I am passionate about supporting families' and children. Everyone experiences difficulties, at times, and everyone needs support from time to time. I am keen to be that friendly ear for parents/carers to offer advice, and signpost to support where needed.

I am also passionate about mental health, and have started offering direct support to children in school around emotional resilience and positive wellbeing.

