

Stacey Neal - Senior Administrator

The children are at the heart of what all the staff at Village do, including myself.

I am passionate about getting the best deals available when it comes to procurement for school.

These savings can then be used towards more resources and experiences for the children.

I also enjoy maintaining positive relationships with external partners to the school from the local authority, businesses and community.

