

Mrs Poulton, EYFS TA

I am passionate about reading books to children. The earlier the children get a passion for books the better. I like nothing better than snuggling on the sofa with children and sharing stories. Stories allow children to develop an imagination as well as vocabulary. I pride myself in my high quality book displays showcasing the range of books we have available for children to enjoy.

